

CIC and The CSC Group Form Strategic Partnership to Capture Growing Electronic Signature Market

Thursday January 29, 9:02 am ET

REDWOOD SHORES, Calif. and CLEVELAND, Jan. 29 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- (OTC Bulletin Board: CICI - News) Communication Intelligence Corporation ("CIC"), the leader in biometric signature verification and The CSC Group ("CSC"), a leading software development and services firm, announced today that they have entered a strategic licensing agreement.

Under the terms of the agreement CSC will incorporate CIC's biometric and electronic signature products into CSC's end-to-end data and document management solutions. CIC's technology will enhance CSC's existing electronic signature technologies by providing biometric capture and verification capabilities, which can insure the authenticity of an individual's signature, as well as CIC's patented tamper-resistant process which insures the validity and legal compliance of electronic documents.

"Partnering with CSC will accelerate penetration of our key target markets," stated Andy Green, CIC's Vice President of Channel Development. "We are pleased that CSC has chosen to join our growing base of select partners that are successfully delivering the ease of use and significant ROI of electronic documents secured with legally binding biometric and electronic signatures."

CSC has provided image management and document workflow solutions for 40 years to several industries including healthcare, financial services, insurance, and manufacturing. CSC specializes in the capture, conversion and automation of data, regardless of format, to preserve vital information and improve workflow processes. CSC serves customers across the U.S., including major healthcare systems and Fortune 1000 companies. CIC's eSignature solutions will significantly enhance the value of CSC's innovative offerings, addressing the increasing demand for electronic document automation and legally compliant approval processes.

"It is through relationships with strategic partners like CIC that we are able to deliver fully integrated, best-of-breed solutions -- both at the enterprise and departmental levels," said Michael J. Bernard, Vice President of Business Development for The CSC Group. "The addition of CIC's biometric signature capture and verification features will significantly increase the value our customers and channel partners derive from CSC's software and services."
